

Bishop Miles E. Fowler Biography

Bishop Fowler was born in Stone Mountain, GA. For the past 56 years he has been married to Helen Riley-Fowler. This union has birthed four children (Pamela, Renee, Nechelle, Timothy) and a daughter-in-law named Iris). These four children have given Bishop Fowler seven grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Bishop Fowler has served as the senior pastor of Big Miller Grove Missionary Baptist Church since 1977 and serves as the spiritual leader to more than 30 Ministers and Senior Pastors.

Bishop Fowler was educated in the Military Technical School, at Interdenominational Theological Center of Atlanta and received the Honorary Doctor of Divinity Degree from Beulah Heights University.

Bishop Fowler has been honored with the "Who's Who in Georgia" Award, profiled in the Atlanta Journal-Constitution Newspaper, Chaplain for the Day in the Georgia State Senate, Consultant to Beulah Heights University, Chaplain to the DeKalb County Jail, member of the Sheriff's Steering Committee, former member of the U. S. Air Force and is the author of a book on Eschatology entitled, "End Time Revelation."